CONTINUING AIRWORTHINESS MANAGEMENT – PRACTITIONER (DASR M)

Course Code
215122

Course Duration
1 Day

Course Content
This course provides in-depth information about the DASRs that apply to Continuing Airworthiness Management Organisations (CAMO) and the responsibilities of those people whose job is to assess compliance with the DASR.

Target Audience
Persons who are (likely to be) responsible for CAMO functions or compliance assurance to DASR M.

Sessions

- Session: 0055
  - Date: 15 October 2019
  - Location: RAAF Amberley
  - Nomination Closing Date: 25 September 2019

- Session: 0056
  - Date: 12 November 2019
  - Location: RAAF Williamtown
  - Nomination Closing Date: 23 October 2019
• Session: 0057
  - Date: 29 October 2019
  - Location: Darwin
  - Nomination Closing Date: 09 October 2019

Costs

Course Costs:

There are no participation costs for this course.

Other Costs:

The individual's parent unit/organisation is responsible for funding travel, meals and accommodation to attend this course. This also applies when the individual is at the training location.

Special Requirements

Please notify DASA Training should you require assistance in attending the course, such as access, hearing, vision assistance, etc.
Nomination Form

Personnel are to nominate directly to DASA Training using webform AE655. If you are unable to nominate using the form above, please contact DASA Training. If no dates are listed please nominate and enter EOI in the course date and location fields and you will be contacted when more courses are scheduled.

Event Administration Contact

DASA.Training@defence.gov.au