Welcome to the Katherine region!

Defence Community Organisation, with the support of the NT Government, is hosting a community expo and family day.

Whether you're new to Katherine or not, you won't want to miss a great day out. There will be government, council and community group information booths as well as community demonstrations and performances. Come and collect the Katherine Town Council new resident kit and enjoy the variety of children's activities, including a jumping castle and face painter.

Enjoy the day in air-conditioned comfort.
