

Response provided to journalist
12 June 2016

Has the Townsville airport been investigated for the presence of PFOS and PFOA - what were the results of these investigations?

Defence has not investigated Townsville airport. Defence has undertaken limited sampling of RAAF Base Townsville as part of the preliminary sampling program. Approximately 10 samples were collected from within the base as no bores were identified outside of the base.

Response provided to journalist
12 June 2016