

Response provided to Journalist
13 February 2018

Question

I just wanted to check whether Defence has contacted Hunter Water about the offer to fund reticulated water or whether there has been a breakdown in communication somewhere along the line?

Response

Defence has commenced discussions with Hunter Water Corporation regarding the announcement that Defence will pay water usage costs for all residential properties within the Williamstown Management Area.

Defence is working with the Hunter Water Corporation to establish a process to implement this support, and once established residents will be advised individually.