

Response provided to journalist

18 April 2019

Question

How will the $400 million [PFAS IM Program funding] be spent in Williamstown?

Response

Approximately $20 million of the current budget and forward estimates (2019-2023) for the Department of Defence PFAS Investigation and Management Branch is programmed for remediation and management activities at Williamstown. As research and remediation technologies develop and new remediation initiatives are implemented, these estimates may vary.