AIM

1. This Standing Instruction (SI) provides guidance on the application of honours, awards and commendations to Australian Defence Organisation (ADO) personnel deployed on operations within the Middle East Area of Operations (MEAO).

AUTHORITY

2. The authority for this SI is Commander Joint Task Force 633 (CJTF633).

SCOPE

3. This SI applies to all ADO personnel force assigned, temporary force assigned for duty or visiting in the MEAO.

INTRODUCTION

4. The Australian Honours and Awards System allows for official recognition of notable service, acts of bravery and achievement by an individual or unit.

Honours and Awards

5. ADO personnel in the MEAO may be nominated for honours and awards in the following categories:
 - a. Victoria Cross for Australia. IAW reference A, Volume 1, Chapter 6, the Victoria Cross for Australia accords recognition to persons who perform acts of the most 'conspicuous gallantry, acts of valour or self-sacrifice, or display extreme devotion to duty in the presence of the enemy'.
 - b. Gallantry Decorations. IAW reference A, Volume 1, Chapter 7, Gallantry Decorations are awarded in recognition of gallantry when 'in action'.
 - c. Distinguished Service Decorations. IAW reference A, Volume 1, Chapter 8, Distinguished Service Decorations are awarded for distinguished service in warlike operations.
 - d. Unit Citations for Gallantry and Meritorious Service. IAW reference A, Volume 1, Chapter 9, Unit Citations recognise gallantry in action or outstanding service in warlike operations by units of the ADF.

UNCLASSIFIED

UNCLASSIFIED

- e. Order of Australia. IAW reference A, Volume 1, Chapter 10, Appointments and Awards within the Order of Australia may be made for service on operations.
 - f. Operational Service Medals. The Australian Active Service Medal (AASM), campaign medals and foreign awards are awarded to ADO personnel deployed to the MEAO who meet the criteria detailed in reference A Volume 2, Chapter 16 and reference B.
 - g. NATO Meritorious Service Medal (NATO MSM). The NATO MSM has been established to recognise Meritorious Service for remarkable service in the interest of the Alliance.
 - h. Defence Commendation Scheme. The Defence Commendations Scheme provides a means of formally recognising superior, excellent, or high/noteworthy achievement, meritorious service or specific acts of bravery for which other Australian honours and awards are not an appropriate medium of recognition. Policy for Defence Commendation Scheme is in reference A, Volume 1, Chapter 39.
6. Nominations for the following categories will not be considered:
- a. Conspicuous Service Decorations. Conspicuous Service Decorations are only awarded for non-warlike operations and service IAW reference A, Volume 1, Chapter 12.
 - b. Nursing Service Cross. Nominations for the Nursing Service Cross are no longer considered IAW reference A, Volume 1, Chapter 12.
7. Venn diagram for Decorations and Commendations is in annex A.

Nomination Procedures

8. Task Group (TG), Task Unit (TU) and Task Elements (TE) commanders are responsible for nominations for honours and awards. Commanders are to take appropriate opportunities to recognise service and achievements; particular consideration is to be given to junior ranks.
9. HQ JTF633 submits nominations bi-annually (to meet Australia Day and Queens Birthday timelines) IAW HQJOC instructions. Drafting requirements for the compilation of nominations for honours and awards are in annex B; additional guidance and nomination dates will be promulgated by RSM JTF633.
10. On HQ JTF633 receipt of honours, awards and Gold level commendation nominations, the J1 will staff check the documentation. Those nominations requiring improvement will be returned to the nominating unit for reconsideration and resubmission. This process ensures that only the strongest possible nominations are presented for consideration.
11. TG/TU/TEs are to submit nominations for CJTF633 Bronze and Silver Commendations NLT three calendar weeks prior to the date of the Transfer of Authority or the member's departure from the MEAO.
12. Nominations for commendations may be submitted at any time; however the majority of nominations for Commendations should accompany nominations for honours and awards toward the end of a deployment. Drafting requirements for the compilation of nominations for commendations are in annex C. If a TG/TU/TE has more than one nomination for the same honour, award or commendation, nominating officers are to identify an order of merit.

UNCLASSIFIED

UNCLASSIFIED

13. Out of session reviews for honours and awards may be conducted at any time on the direction of CJTF, in consultation with HQJOC.

14. JTF633 Honours and Awards Board. All nominations that have met initial requirements will be scheduled for presentation to the JTF633 Honours and Awards Board. The following HQ JTF633 appointments are permanent members of the Board:

- a. CJTF (Chair);
- b. DCJTF;
- c. COS or J1;
- d. RSM HQ JTF633; and
- e. J011 (Secretary).

Service Medals

15. Applications for Service medals are processed through the Theatre Personnel Support Centre (TPSC) at Al Minhad Air Base. ADO members may be eligible for the AASM, campaign medals and/or NATO ISAF medal dependent on their force assignment. No automatic entitlement exists for a service medal. Staffing requirements for Service medals are in annex D.

Foreign Awards to Australians

16. If an ADF member has been awarded a Foreign Award for service in an appointment in JTF633, nominations for an Australian Honour and Award for the same appointment will not be considered.

Combat Badges

17. Infantry Combat Badge (ICB). The ICB is awarded to members of the Royal Australian Infantry Corps for service as an infantryman in warlike operations. Policy for this award is in reference D.

18. Army Combat Badge (ACB). The purpose of the ACB is to recognise the unique service of a member operating with an Arms Corps unit within a warlike area of operations. The purpose of the ACB is not to recognise combat duties but to recognise service with a combat element through formal force assignment. Policy for this award is in references E and F.

19. The following TG/TU/TEs are automatically eligible to apply for the ACB, IAW current mission and tasks:

- a. Mentoring/Advising Task Force;
- b. Special Operation Task Group;
- c. Rotary Wing Group;
- d. RWG Night Watchmen Detachment;
- e. Psychological Operations Detachment - Uruzgan;
