Dear [REDACTED]

Thanks for talking to me this afternoon about the Jedi Council investigation, which was extremely helpful.

We talked about a spreadsheet created by your team showing alleged breaches by each of the suspects, which references dates, times and titles of offending emails. It would be most helpful if we could obtain a copy of the spreadsheet, which would assist us to get a better sense of which emails and how many emails were transmitted via the DRN.

Kind regards

Hello [REDACTED]

As always we are very willing to assist in these matters, however our more detailed corporate knowledge on such matters will not always be resident in Canberra. In this case, I'm led to believe the two investigators best placed to assist with respect to the Jedi Council email traffic are [REDACTED] (Perth) and [REDACTED] (Adelaide). Those of us in Canberra have very limited first hand knowledge of this material and would therefore be reliant on reviewing records in our information system. I suggest the following potential courses of action:

- ODSC contact [REDACTED] (Perth) and [REDACTED] (Adelaide) via phone.
- ODSC attend A [REDACTED] with one of our staff and jointly review the material held in our information system.
- [REDACTED] (Perth) and/or [REDACTED] (Adelaide) travel to Canberra to meet with ODSC.

Noting above, please advise how you wish to proceed.

Hi [REDACTED]

I have been asked to set up a meeting next Monday or Tuesday with ADFIS about the evidence in the Jedi Council matter.

Specifically, we need to get a better handle on how many inappropriate emails were transmitted and retransmitted on the DRN; also the systems in place to detect inappropriate emails and how these ones evaded detection. [REDACTED] thinks ADFIS is the first port of call because they have already looked at these issues.

Is this correct and if so, are you able to advise who it would be appropriate to set the meeting up with (Provost Marshall?) and availability.

Dear [redacted]

Thanks for talking to me this afternoon about the Jedi Council investigation, which was extremely helpful.

We talked about a spreadsheet created by your team showing alleged breaches by each of the suspects, which references dates, times and titles of offending emails. It would be most helpful if we could obtain a copy of the spreadsheet, which would assist us to get a better sense of which emails and how many emails were transmitted via the DRN.

Kind regards

Hello [REDACTED]

As always we are very willing to assist in these matters, however our more detailed corporate knowledge on such matters will not always be resident [REDACTED]. In this case, I'm led to believe the two investigators best placed to assist with respect to the Jedi Council email traffic are [REDACTED] (Perth) and [REDACTED] (Adelaide). Those of us in Canberra have very limited first hand knowledge of this material and would therefore be reliant on reviewing records in our information system. I suggest the following potential courses of action:

- ODSC contact [REDACTED] (Perth) and [REDACTED] (Adelaide) via phone.
- ODSC attend ADFIS and sit with one of our staff and jointly review the material held in our information system.
- [REDACTED] (Perth) and/or [REDACTED] (Adelaide) travel to Canberra to meet with ODSC.

Noting above, please advise how you wish to proceed.

Hi [REDACTED]

I have been asked to set up a meeting next Monday or Tuesday with ADFIS about the evidence in the Jedi Council matter.

Specifically, we need to get a better handle on how many inappropriate emails were transmitted and retransmitted on the DRN; also the systems in place to detect inappropriate emails and how these ones evaded detection. [REDACTED] thinks ADFIS is the first port of call because they have already looked at these issues.

Is this correct and if so, are you able to advise who it would be appropriate to set the meeting up with (Provost Marshall?) and availability.

Subject: Australian of the year criteria

I have heard many complaints about the selection and eligibility of AofTY so below is a list of the criteria. looking at them one must ask exactly how this year's and some preceding recipients managed consideration let alone the award

You draw your own conclusions however looking at the nominees and the winners how many of them have achieved excellence in their nominated field, let alone a significant contribution to the Australian community

From what I see of this award it is about being politically correct particularly in line with government attitudes

I wonder what Morrison will do to "National pride and active citizenship", maybe give away free sex change operations

The selection criteria are:

- Demonstrated excellence in their field
- Significant contribution to the Australian community and nation
- An inspirational role model for the Australian community
- The Local Hero award acknowledges a significant contribution at local community level

Selection panels will also give consideration to the following in assessing and comparing nominations against the above criteria:

- Personal, academic and professional achievements
- Contribution in the relevant field (how has the nominee 'put back' into their field to benefit others)
- Demonstrated leadership, innovation and creativity
- Personal interests and community involvement
- Contribution to development of regional community and/or economy
- Future goals and likely impact
- Degree of difficulty of the achievement and sacrifices made
- Country of residence
- Previous awards and recognition
- Voluntary work beyond paid employment
- Nature and length of activity or service
- Achievements as an individual or as part of a group or organisation
- Availability and commitment to promote national pride and active citizenship though the year of the recipient's appointment

In any case you be the judge of what you consider to properly required to be AofTY and if current recipients meet your standard

Regards s47F
