EXPLANATORY STATEMENT

Defence Determination 2000/34

Defence Determination 2000/1, Conditions of Service (“the Principal Determination”), made under section 58B of the Defence Act 1903, includes provisions authorising an attendance allowance for eligible members of the Reserve Forces who are required to attend at a specified place to render reserve service within Australia.

The amounts of attendance allowance are set out in the table in subclause 11.1.1 (2) of the Principal Determination.

This Determination replaces the table specifying the applicable amounts of attendance allowance.

Attendance allowance has been subject to annual reviews from the time of its introduction in 1975. Variations to the amounts of attendance allowance were aligned with movements in the transportation component of the Consumer Price Index (CPI).

The explanatory statement for Defence Determination 2000/40 of 7 December 2000 stated that attendance allowance amounts would be reviewed annually in line with movements in the CPI. This Determination adjusts the allowance to take into account a CPI movement of 2.5% for the year ended September 2001, adjusted to the nearest $0.05 (or between $0.10 and $0.55 in dollar terms).

This Determination commences on 20 December 2001, as provided by subsection 58B(4) of the Defence Act 1903. This date is the beginning of the first pay period after signature of the determination.
