

Defence News Advertising Rates - 2019

The Defence Service newspapers; Navy News, Army News and Air Force News, are printed and distributed nationally each fortnight by Defence News Bureau. Editions are also published online and via apps.

Distribution is Australia-wide to full time serving Defence members, Reserve forces and Cadet units, and to deployed forces overseas.

Copies are also mailed to paid subscribers, welfare and veterans organisations and Australian and foreign Defence attaches and Consular offices in Australia and overseas.

The newspapers are the official medium of the Department of Defence to inform personnel of:

- » Policy changes in plain English
- » General news relevant to the Australian Defence Force
- » International news and features
- » Sport

The Service newspapers are the only official newspapers produced by the Department of Defence and are read by people who make decisions on Defence policy and purchasing. They are the most effective publications to promote any message or information to Defence members or Defence civilians.

Each fortnight Defence News Bureau; prints and distributes around 33,000 copies, sends out approximately 30,000 subscriber emails and around 22,000 push notifications (app users).

Additionally, there is a constant link to the online editions on the front page of the Defence intranet which is opened daily by up to 100,000 Australian Defence Organisation (ADO) personnel. Every fortnight the release of each new edition is also promoted on the front page "Spotlight" notice.
