Circumstances where CO, OC or REDLO can approve

If you meet any or all of the criteria below, please complete form AD 301 - Application for Education Assistance - School Students at the Gaining Location (For consideration by CO, OC or REDLO). If the criteria below are not applicable, you may still be eligible for education assistance under discretionary provisions which are approved by REDLO. You should refer to form AD 301-1 - Education Assistance - School Students at the Gaining Location.

Does your child meet any of the criteria below? (Please tick appropriate box(es) as applicable):

- The child has not attained or is unlikely to maintain a sufficient standard in a subject or subjects, and requires additional tuition that the school is unable to provide (Tuition for one hour per week, for up to 14 weeks in a previously studied subject, or for up to six months in a subject not previously studied but a subject at the new school). Tuition must be completed within 18 months of the child enrolling at school in the new location.
- The child is in Years 10, 11 or 12 and requires tuition in a subject that is essential to his or her career aims but is not provided at the new school. The subject or a directly related subject was provided at the child’s former school (Tuition for one hour per week for the duration of the school year). Tuition must be completed within 18 months of the child starting study at the new school.
- The child requires a therapy service that cannot be provided at the school. This service is critical to the educational progress of the child. Member must be recognised as member with dependant(s) with special needs.
- An assessment is required of the child’s special need in order to develop an appropriate educational program in the new location. The assessment cannot be provided by a government agency at the locality (Reimbursement of the cost of assessment up to a specified maximum amount).

If you answered ‘Yes’ to any or all of the above criteria, your CO, OC or REDLO can approve this application for Education Assistance.
