

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The work undertaken in developing the Defence Personnel Environment Scan 2025 involved circulation of numerous drafts both inside and outside of Defence. The breadth and depth of the issues covered required the input of a diverse number of specialists who provided professional inputs, constructive criticism and a lot of positive support. I am also very appreciative to the authors of the references and bibliographical works. Many aspects of this book owe a great deal to these busy individuals who made their time and expertise available.

I am truly grateful to everyone involved. I wish to thank and publicly recognise the following people in particular:
