EXPLANATORY MEMORANDUM

DETERMINATION NO 96 OF 1991

Defence Act 1903

This determination amends Overseas Defence Determination 1989/27 by inserting revised amounts for the maximum admissible school costs for which a member may be reimbursed for the schooling of a child attending preschool, primary school or secondary school in the United Kingdom. The revised amounts applying for the 1990/91 United Kingdom school year are effective from 1 September 1990.

The revised maximum admissible school costs are based on a review of school fee data published by the United Kingdom Independent Schools Information Service, made available in January 1991. The data relates to the United Kingdom school year which commenced in September 1990.

The amounts determined are based on this data and accordingly are applicable for the 1990/91 United Kingdom school year.

The retrospective application of this determination does not affect the rights of a person (other than the Commonwealth) in a manner prejudicial to that person, nor does it impose any liability on such person.
