DETERMINATION NO 1 OF 1993
Defence Act 1903

Determination 1992/52 (the Principal Determination) establishes special conditions of service, including entitlement to Deployment Allowance, for members of the Australian Defence Force performing duty with the United Nations in Somalia.

This determination extends the designated area in which Deployment Allowance is payable to include the internationally recognised Somali territorial waters. A separate rate of the allowance is provided for a member performing duty in these territorial waters.

Clause 3 of this determination makes the necessary amendment to the definition of "designated area" in the Principal Determination.

Clause 4 modifies the entitlement to Deployment Allowance by providing for two rates, entitlement to which depends on where a member performs duty within the designated area.
