Dear Edmund,

WITH COMPLIMENTS

Here with your Bryan Clark article. Mary thanks for it. Thanks too for last night particularly to Meggie who copied so well with my unworthily late arrival & your speedy delivery of the body to Victoria.

You have no doubt deduced that I am more than slightly convinced about the rightness of my assessment of the Sydney/Koronen action, & am singularly unthreatened to most of the other assessments. Never the less, the words of the diarist in the previous evening are well remembered. He said his monitor always said "Don't fall in love with your own arguments". I see them for what they really are. They are a credit to you both. As never. We
