

SUBM.001.0106

This has been labeled as the cradle for the 27' whaler on Sydney. This is incorrect and looks nothing like the Whaler support. It has obviously been misidentified by Perryman just like Mearns was looking for the bell on the quarterdeck. Did they really know what they were looking at ? This is obviously the end of the catapult and the Walrus apparatus for launching it.