

BY AIR MAIL
PAR AVION

H. PAQ
SHIPS

LAST LETTER
Mrs W.L.A. Fair

19 Mars

Nov. 11th 1941

To My Sweetheart & children.

Once again my love was a few more lines to you all in answer to your loving and always welcome letter that I received late last night when the mail came in hand and was jolly pleased to be able to read in it once again that all my sweeties are in good health a part from a few minor complaints and

Bevington
30/11/41
B. Bevington

ANNEX A

Submission p.2.

Last Letter.
Sample of the beginning of all letters.
over page - sample of ending of letters - signed off.

Example of addressed envelope and first and last page of a letter
This letter being the last one of 11th November, 1941.

ANNEX - How letters ended - Ref.

A

SUBM.004.0102_R

you, 16 years or more of you now and I still love what more do you want than that, don't get a swelled head about it either young Lady, for get it, how is the kids money boxes going here me, I'll bet I got more pennies and halfpennies saved up than they have in my tin, I mean pennies too, half a salvated tin full up to now of the odd pennies I get Paul. I suppose the devil will get them all in the end as usual. Had slips out where his girls are concerned I suppose.

Well now that's about all I can think of once again kissing mine so I will close once again with the fondest of love to you and the little ones always and only with a big hug each from Paul.

My Ref.
 " I am
 Your loving Husband & Dad
 Wal."
 (Walter)

Your love ~~Walter~~
 Paul
 + + + + +
 + + + + +
 + + + + +
 + + + + +
 + + + + +
 + + + + +
 + + + + +