

SUBM.007.0131

- Home
- About the program
- Story archive
- Tuning in
- Links
- Producer profiles
- Contact us

Click here for podcast of The Wire
Click on program dates below for audio of each story

Monday, 24 November 2008

- NSW Indigenous children more likely to end up in state care
- Rudd's one year report card
- Corporate brands losing cachet on the web
- Australian chicken welfare nothing to cluck home about
- Kings Cross homeless youth say learning risotto gives new life

Friday, 21 November 2008

- White Ribbon Campaign 2008
- Honesty in Government Pt 2
- Environomy
- Anti-Terrible Laws
- Safe Schoolies

Thursday, 20 November 2008

- Kimberly needs carrots as well as sticks
- Mulesing Target Cutback Threatened
- Pyne's Fight for Fair Trade
- Is there such a thing as internet addiction?
- Blind Conscience
- Somalian Pirates Strike Again

Wednesday, 19 November 2008

- Parents watch out - new welfare trial to start in WA
- Hakani - Survivor of Infanticide in Brazil
- Is Welfare a Right?
- Too posh to push?
- Too many drowning deaths in our pools
- On the anniversary of the sinking of the HMAS Sydney - are we closer to understanding w sank?

Tuesday, 18 November 2008

- Bilingual schools in the NT under threat
- Credibility of ADHD guidelines questioned
- Do we need fluoride in our bottled water?
- Press freedom protests in Sudan
- Blockade of Gaza brings civilians to their knees

The Wire is a daily current affairs program broadcast on community radio stations around A

The Wire is a program for the national community radio sector - available via COMRADSAT .
to more than 200 stations in areas ranging from city to regional to remote indigenous comm