H.M.A.S SYDNEY II
ANCHORS.

Dear Sir

In a earlier letter to the C.O.I I suggested the image on the Internet showing (SYDNEY DIVE 3.422) i.e. Ref Bow with anchor showing, I said it looked very much like the anchor front KORMORAN and other German merchant ships, I did also mention this idea to John Perryman, sadly I did not research deep enough and now wish to retract this idea!

I enclose the image of "H.M.S PIMPERNEL" and also believe H.M.A.S PERTH carried the same pattern as H.M.A.S SYDNEY II, and I now accept this is an Admiralty Pattern Anchor, I possibly saw AN ships with type that forgot.

Yours Faithfully

Peter Davison
