The Aircraft went from it launching bed in to the water (aircraft was blown into the water)

Everywhere we observed Fire and Flames out of the ship. We could not see any activity on the upper Deck about 20mm guns where to intense, as our ^{was} 30.7^H fired round for round in to the Bridge anti-tank gun

There was no Torpedo attack as our 20mm explosive round prevented the operation of there Torpedotube

IT could be they actually ^(tried) frayed to bring there Torpedos into action

But we did no see see any activity on Deck. Suddently the enemy change ^{COURSE} course and came towards us and went through part of our Stern (behind)
