Submission: We are totally opposed to the mining of uranium and selling it to countries where it is likely to be used for making bombs which would caused enormous suffering to the people upon whom such bombs would be inflicted. The whole issue of armed defence is too difficult to respond to but we can only urge our Government to act with total justice and humanitarian integrity in its relations with other countries so that there will be no reason for those countries to threaten us with violent attack. Our defence forces should only be used to protect the interests of other peoples if they are threatened. Yours faithfully, Phili S. Kidner
