DEC04 – END USE AND NON TRANSFER CERTIFICATE BY FOREIGN GOVERNMENT

What is the purpose of the DEC04?

The DEC04 - End Use and Non Transfer Certificate authorises a consignee and foreign government end user to receive goods and/or technology for a foreign government military or security end use, on the condition they will not re-export, resell or otherwise transfer, the goods and/or technology without the consent of the Australian Minister for Defence or their delegate.

When do I need to submit a DEC04?

When you are submitting an Application to Export or Supply Controlled Goods and Technology and:

- the goods and/or technology are being sold or transferred to a foreign government end user for military or security end-use; or
- Defence Export Controls (DEC) has requested a DEC04 based on the circumstances of your application.

Who needs to complete and sign a DEC04?

An authorised agent of the Applicant (the exporter) must complete and sign all fields in the Applicant section of this DEC04.

An authorised agent of the Consignee (a third party/intermediary who is a part of the supply chain for the export of the goods and/or technology. For example, a foreign distributor or transport company) must complete and sign the Consignee section of this DEC04 (if the consignee is NOT the same as the End User). All fields must be completed and the Certification by Consignee section signed.

An authorised agent of the End User (the government entity that will receive and use the goods and/or technology) must complete the End User and End Use sections, and complete and sign the Certification by End User of this DEC04.

How should I submit my DEC04?

The Applicant should attach a scanned copy of the DEC04 when submitting an Application to Export Controlled Goods and Technology via the Forms Website.

Where can I find further information on exporting military goods and technology?

The Defence Export Controls website provides further information at www.defence.gov.au/exportcontrols. You can also contact Defence Export Controls on 1800 661 066, or on +61 6266 7222 if outside Australia, between 0830 and 1630 Australian Eastern Standard Time from Monday to Friday except on Public Holidays, and via our email address: exportcontrols@defence.gov.au
