

The Directorate of Incident Reporting and Management, within the Fraud Control and Investigation Branch, manages Defence's obligations under the Public Interest Disclosure Act 2013 (the Act).

For a disclosure to be considered under the Act, it must be made to an Authorised Officer. If a disclosure is made to a supervisor, the supervisor must give the information to an Authorised Officer. Disclosures can be made by:

- Phone: 1800 673 502 (from 0930 to 1430 Monday to Friday – the phone may be switched to recorded message on some occasions, if so, please send information to the email address below)
- Phone (International): +61 2 6266 2433
- Email: defence.pid@defence.gov.au

Individual authorised officers are listed in the table below:

s47E(c)

