

Order of the Day
For the awarding of the Victoria Cross for Australia to Corporal Benjamin Roberts-Smith

I am immensely proud to inform you that Corporal Benjamin Roberts-Smith, from the Special Air Service Regiment, Australian Army, was yesterday presented the Victoria Cross for Australia by Her Excellency the Governor-General, Ms Quentin Bryce, “for the most circumstances of extreme peril as a Patrol Second-in-Command, Group on Operation SLIPPER” on the 11th of June 2010.

In choosing to serve our nation, I believe that you—all the men and women of the Australian Defence Force—display courage, initiative and self-sacrifice every day. However, I am sure you would agree that in Afghanistan on the 11th of June 2010, Corporal Benjamin Roberts-Smith went far beyond what we would ordinarily expect of ourselves and our colleagues.

On your behalf, at the ceremony yesterday, I took the opportunity to thank Corporal Roberts-Smith for his valour and gallantry. I also told him that I was confident that his fellow servicemen and women right across the Australian Defence Force were united in their belief that his actions were worthy of this auspicious and extraordinary recognition.

As I first indicated two years ago, within the military, it is traditionally a mark of the utmost respect that all, no matter their rank, salute a Victoria Cross recipient. It is a great source of delight to me that there are now two serving members of the ADF I have the great honour to salute.

Corporal Benjamin Roberts-Smith, VC, MG, has brought great credit to himself, the Australian Army, and the Australian Defence Force. You should all take great pride in his investiture into this rare
