

Penrith Training Depot, NSW | Divestment underway

Address: 11 Mountain View Crescent, Penrith, NSW 2750

Size: 3.60 hectares

Originally a part of a much larger 47 hectare area, this site was established in 1941 for the Royal Australian Engineers. This site was more recently used as a Reserves and Cadets training facility. This site was declared surplus in 2017 and is currently vacant with divestment underway.

Site Functions

This site has been vacant since 2016.

Site Information

- ⓘ Many security incidents including unauthorised access and theft have resulted in costly repairs.

Site Occupants

Nil.

Relocation Options

Nil personnel to be relocated.

History and Heritage

Nil.

Divestment underway: When a property is identified as surplus, the appropriate disposal process is followed.