

Address: Fort Direction Road, South Arm, TAS 7022

Size: 108 hectares

Fort Direction was first acquired in 1938 and expanded in 1986 when additional land was acquired. Historically, Fort Direction was used for coastal defence, as a training camp and signal station.

Site Functions

This site provides a storage compound and distribution facility. Government will engage with existing tenants as part of the divestment process.

Site Occupants

Nil.

Relocation Options

Nil personnel to be relocated.

History and Heritage

There are two Aboriginal cultural sites within Fort Direction with Indigenous access arrangements in place.

