Terms and Conditions

All capitalized terms used in this Order Form but not defined herein shall have the meaning given to such terms in the Babel Street End User Subscription Terms (as defined below).

Subscription Term

The period during which Customer may access its subscription shall be the term set forth above ("Subscription Term"). For any renewal Subscription Term, such renewal Subscription Term shall begin on the calendar day immediately following expiration of either the initial Subscription Term or the then-current renewal Subscription Term, as applicable. Additional products may be purchased during the Subscription Term pursuant to an Amendment to this Order Form (an "Add-On Order Form"). Any such additional products shall be coterminous with the original Subscription Term.

Trial Access

At any time during the Subscription Term, Customer may request, and Babel Street may (in its sole discretion) permit, a limited number of Authorized Users to access the Application, Data Feed(s) and/or data package(s) for a limited period (the "Trial Period") to enable new or existing Authorized Users to evaluate the Application and/or new features and functionalities of the Application ("Trial Access"). Any such trial use of the Application shall be subject to the Agreement and shall not require execution of new Order Form. Notwithstanding Section 2.1 of the Terms, any Trial Access shall be solely for the purpose of evaluating whether the Application or new features/functionalities would be of beneficial use to Customer. Trial Access will be terminated and disabled by Babel Street upon expiration of the Trial Period. Sections 3 and 5, and Subsections 7.1 and 7.2, and Exhibit S, of the Terms shall not apply to any Trial Access of the Application by Customer.
