

Request for information

This can occur at any stage in the application process.

Additional information required in support of the application.

Submitted

Applications are vetted to ensure all relevant information and supporting documentation are provided.

Assessment Stage

The goods and/or technology to be exported are assessed. The team determines which category they fall into on the Defence & Strategic Goods List.

Assessment Stage 2

End users (destinations) are assessed against legislation to determine if the export will prejudice Australia's security, defence or international relations.

Delegate Review

This is the final stage. The delegate reviews the permit decision.

Finalised

Permit or certificate issued.

Referred to a third party

This can occur at any stage in the application process.

Assessment of your application indicates that additional consultation with another government department is required.